

MRS. ARCHIBALD MACDOUGALL has moved from 200 West 10th street to 200 West 10th street, and is prepared to give the GILLESPIE HYGIENIC TREATMENT of scalp and hair in her home.
Telephone 1594-2

Ladies Attention!

Buy your fall and winter coat-ings and cloakings direct from the mill at mill prices. Fine Suede, Velours and Poio Cloth.

GLEN WOOLEN MILLS

Wightman's Switch
Norwich Town

home with his daughter, Mrs. Allen. Mr. Potter was a carpenter by trade.

Henry Plant Leaves $100,000 Apartment
Henry B. Plant of New London and New York has leased a duplex apartment of 15 rooms and six baths in New York city. The apartment was held at $20,000 and the lease is for a long term of years at an aggregate rental of $100,000.

Mr. Plant a year ago sold his six story residence at 25 West Fifty-fourth street.

Realize $200 For College Fund.
A successful rummage sale was held Saturday at Buckingham Memorial in the interests of the Connecticut College Endowment fund. About $200 was realized from the sale of the articles. The sale was in charge of Miss Agnes Leahy and Miss Dorothy Grogan, two graduates of the college. The sale opened at 8 in the morning and continued throughout the day.

Back to Standard Time.
Trains and trolley cars that have been running on changed schedules to meet daylight saving time, shifted back to standard time Sunday. The shift back to standard time, which was scarcely apparent in this city, which did not adopt the daylight saving time this summer.

PHOENIXVILLE

Entertainments scheduled to be held at McNair chapel last week were indefinitely postponed.

School was closed here Thursday as the pupils might attend Woodstock fair.

Sunday school at McNair chapel was well attended Sunday. Victor Frank was awarded an engraved silver medal for saving the life of Joseph Schumannski.

A number from here attended the benefit dance at Hartford hall, Eastford. A large sum was realized.

THOMPSON

Children's night was observed by the grange in Thompson Tuesday evening when pupils of the Thompson schools furnished the programme. On the list were several numbers from the pupils of the district 5; a folk dance by the pupils of the First and Second grades; recitation, Elmer Russ; song, Elmer Rhodes and Lillian Bennett; demonstration in physical exercises, four movements, by class girls in Chicago, Glenora, the teacher, was in charge of this part of the programme.

BRIEF STATE NEWS

Westbrook—A tame pheasant wandered into a poultry yard on Main street the other day, and was captured readily.

Middletown—Max Baum, a butcher, whose place of business is on Union street, was fined $5 and costs amounting to $19.20, by Associate Judge Anderson in police court, on a charge of selling and delivering veal before it had been inspected and stamped by Dr. E. M. Blodgett, city food and meat inspector.

BESSIE COLEMAN, NEGRESS, BECOMES AN AVIATRIX

New York, Sept. 25.—Ten months ago Miss Bessie Coleman, a 24 year old negress, left her home in Chicago, where she had been employed as a manicurist, for Europe. Today she returned to this country on the steamship Manchuria as a full fledged aviatrice, said to be the first of her race. The young woman attended an aviation school in France plans to engage in exhibition flying in this country.

Knud Rasmussen

According to a Copenhagen dispatch, the International Psychical Congress and the Danish explorer Knud Rasmussen have entered into an agreement. Rasmussen recently left for Greenland and the North and he will place either himself or a sensitive Greenland in tune for an experiment in the receipt and dispatch of telepathic reports.

Miss Rose Chinito
After an illness of nine days Miss Rose Chinito, 17 years old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dimerio Chinito of 11 Division street, died Sunday at the home of her parents. Miss Chinito came to this country with her parents and had since made her home in this city.

John W. Potter
John W. Potter, 30, died Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George O. Allen, Gay Hill, Montville. Mr. Potter was the son of John W. and Sarah A. Street Potter and had resided in Montville for some years. He made his

Miss Rose Chinito
After an illness of nine days Miss Rose Chinito, 17 years old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dimerio Chinito of 11 Division street, died Sunday at the home of her parents. Miss Chinito came to this country with her parents and had since made her home in this city.

John W. Potter
John W. Potter, 30, died Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George O. Allen, Gay Hill, Montville. Mr. Potter was the son of John W. and Sarah A. Street Potter and had resided in Montville for some years. He made his

Miss Rose Chinito
After an illness of nine days Miss Rose Chinito, 17 years old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dimerio Chinito of 11 Division street, died Sunday at the home of her parents. Miss Chinito came to this country with her parents and had since made her home in this city.

John W. Potter
John W. Potter, 30, died Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George O. Allen, Gay Hill, Montville. Mr. Potter was the son of John W. and Sarah A. Street Potter and had resided in Montville for some years. He made his

Miss Rose Chinito
After an illness of nine days Miss Rose Chinito, 17 years old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dimerio Chinito of 11 Division street, died Sunday at the home of her parents. Miss Chinito came to this country with her parents and had since made her home in this city.

John W. Potter
John W. Potter, 30, died Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George O. Allen, Gay Hill, Montville. Mr. Potter was the son of John W. and Sarah A. Street Potter and had resided in Montville for some years. He made his

Miss Rose Chinito
After an illness of nine days Miss Rose Chinito, 17 years old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dimerio Chinito of 11 Division street, died Sunday at the home of her parents. Miss Chinito came to this country with her parents and had since made her home in this city.

FIVE HURT IN AUTOMOBILE COLLISION

Five persons were injured, one severely, in an automobile collision Sunday night about 8 o'clock on a down grade on the North Stonington road about a mile and a half below the police headquarters in Hartford.

The driver of a car that ran into two others, was arrested on the charge of operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor. Four of those injured were Fred S. Young, 20, of 20 Connel street, John Houston who gave his address as 23 Cliff street, and Frank Commer of No. 3 Water street, who were taken to the Backus Hospital. The fifth, a woman, went to her home at 68 Summit street.

The collision occurred when a Cadillac car, said to belong to Augustus Vera of 131 Mt. Pleasant street, but driven by William Hyman of 100 Elm street, ran into two Ford touring cars and then shot off the road through a fence and landed in a lot. According to the information gathered by the police, Hyman was on the way to 10 Lantern Hill with four men in his car when he struck first the machine of Silas Loringwell of East Great Road and then Mr. Lincoln's machine. After striking the Lincoln car, the Cadillac went through the fence.

Word of the accident was telephoned to Sergeant John H. Kane at police headquarters here with a request for the ambulance and officers. Sergeant Kane at once notified the Backus hospital, which sent its ambulance to Halville, and he sent Officer Patrick

STABBING AFFRAY IN YARD ON CEDAR STREET

About 11 o'clock Saturday night Frank Prudente, 27 years old, stopped Officer Michael Carroll on Franklin square and asked him where he could find a doctor. Officer Carroll asked Prudente what the matter was and Prudente exhibited a badly cut lower lip which he claimed he received at the hands of Pacifica Duce, 42, in a fight in the yard at No. 123 Cedar street.

Officer Carroll took the man to the police station. Dr. Louis T. Cassidy was called to attend Prudente's injuries which it was found consisted of a cut under the lower lip, the cut extending almost through, a cut on the left arm near the wrist and cuts in his clothing, one at the chest and another at the arm of his coat. Neither of the latter cuts extended through his clothing to the skin.

After Prudente had been attended by Officers Carroll and Patrick Murphy were sent after Duce and he was taken to the police station. Prudente and Duce were arrested, the charge being assault. They are still at police headquarters in default of bonds of $1,000.

It has been developed that when the fight was stopped a man by the name of Joseph Grillo, with whom Prudente boards at No. 133 Cedar st. he took an unloaded double barreled shot gun and fired at the two men to know what the fight in the yard was about.

BOARD OF REGISTRATION MAKES 286 NEW VOTERS

After two days spent in making voters Saturday and a week ago Saturday, the Norwich board of registration found they had made 286 new voters. Out of the 286 men on the to-be-made list 129 were made voters and out of the 468 women 157 were made voters. Those who appeared before the board and got their names on the voting list.

The board found that they always do a good job in making voters. On the day when the board is making voters, they then expect to be considered, whereas they should have put in a petition just as soon as they decide to become voters. It is hoped that in the future they will advance they cannot be made by merely appearing on the day the board is making voters. About 45 were disappointed that way this year. They will have to wait until they are made voters until October, 1922.

The following shows the list of to-be-made voters and of voters made in the six districts.

Made	Made	Made	Made
1st 112	47	128	49
2nd 62	18	60	22
3rd 37	18	120	38
4th 14	14	14	26
5th 44	24	15	15
6th 31	6	26	12

There were 305 men and 468 women made voters and 25 old voters were restored. About 40 per cent. of the eligible list was made.

RALLY DAY SERVICES AT METHODIST CHURCH

The Epworth league and congregation of Trinity Methodist church will observe a joint service Sunday evening in the church. The union service was part of the rally week programme which opened last Sunday night.

Beginning at 7:15 o'clock there was a song service which was followed by the regular evening service with a helpful address by the pastor, Rev. Robert L. Roberts, on the topic, "The Great Wines." The rally evening had some 100 feet on the attendance which was not as large as expected.

At noon the Sunday school of the church observed rally day. A special rally day programme was carried out under the direction of John B. Stanton. A number of the congregation attended the session.

Next Sunday morning Rev. Mr. Roberts will begin a series of sermons on the Letter to the Romans. In October Judge Charles Hagerty will be the speaker at the women's rally service. His topic will be "The Fearless Handkerchief."

PROMOTIONS TAKE PLACE AT CENTRAL BAPTIST RALLY

Promotions from one department to another in the Central Baptist Sunday school were carried out at the rally day exercises of the school Sunday at noon.

The classes announced by the church and marched into the main auditorium for the programme. There was an attendance of 415.

Assistant Superintendent C. Edward Smith, who presided, and the pastor, Rev. Dr. David A. Pitt, made interesting addresses.

D. A. B. Manual Ready
At the annual meeting of the Connecticut Chapter Regents held Friday at the Ellsworth hotel in Windsor the state regent, Joseph Laidlaw, chairman of the committee of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution which is publishing a new "Manual of the Order," announced that the copies printed in English are now ready. Translations in Italian and Spanish are already on the press, and other translations will follow. This manual is prepared especially for immigrants newly arriving in this country and has been carefully compiled.

Child Bitten by Dog

Doris Draper, two and a half year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Draper of Schenectady, N. Y., was bitten in the face by a dog while she was walking towards the dog to pat it when it snapped at her biting her on the cheek near the eye. Mr. and Mrs. Draper are spending a few days at his former home on Laurel Hill.

PERSONALS

W. H. Tubbs of Fort Pierce, Fla., is visiting relatives at Pendleton Hill.

Miss Alice Kiffin of Thompson has been a guest of Mrs. George Olds of Manchester.

Mrs. Howard Clark returned last week to her home on Washington street, following a visit of a week with friends in Central Village.

Misses Edna Hicks and Bertha Pinyan have closed Maplecrest cottage at Mooning and have returned to Providence for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sholes and family and Mrs. Harry McGee and son have returned after taking a motor trip to Charleston, N. H.

Mrs. John L. Constock, of Hempstead, N. Y., returned Thursday to spend several weeks with Mrs. William M. Perkins, of McKinley avenue.

Mrs. Susie Lillibridge of Norwich town is the guest of her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Stoughton, at their home on Port Road place, Mystic.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert G. Hart and daughter, Miss Thelma Hart, of Springfield, returned to Norwich Sunday and were guests of relatives and friends here.

Ticket Agent Herbert E. Hanna, of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad station, and Mrs. Hanna, spent Sunday with relatives in New Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Cone from Rhode Island have been taking an auto tour and on their return spent a few days in Hartford with Mr. Cone's grandmother, Mrs. Antoinette Rigdon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin T. Keach and son Paul returned to New Haven last Saturday after spending the summer at White Hall in Old Mystic. The historic house owned by the daughters of the late Samuel Keach. Mr. Keach is a teacher at Yale university.

Out of town relatives at the funeral of Mrs. Hiram H. Farum (Mrs. Harland-Willard) of New London, formerly of Norwich town, who died Sunday, Edwin Sumner Willard of New York city, her aunt, Miss Martha Hyde, and two cousins, Attorney Alfred Olen and Louis Dressler, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. Henry F. Dincock of South Coventry has returned to her home after several months in South America where she was the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, M. and Mrs. Catalina. The former is a full time nurse at the Yonkers hospital.

Mrs. Dincock will occupy her winter home on Scott Circle the coming season.

NORWICH EAGLES BEGIN FALL MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN

Norwich Eagle No. 357, E. O. E., opened a fall membership campaign late Sunday afternoon with the initiation of a good sized class of candidates in Eagles' hall on Shennett street. The local unit at 5 o'clock and the work was put on by the local degree team in a very commendable manner.

Following the initiation ceremony P. W. Jewell presented to seven past worthy presidents, the presentation being made by Worthy President John DeBrunner. Those who received the sword were: Eugene Shugrue, Martin Keough, Victor Payment, Charles Dresser, Prentice Chase, Joseph Curran and George Geophart. There were remarks for the good of the order by the past worthy president and the new members.

About 7 o'clock a banquet was served, 45 covers being laid. The menu included soup, chicken gravy, crackers, fried chicken, chicken with stuffing, mashed potatoes, green peas, celery, olives, coffee, assorted cakes.

Worthy President John DeBrunner acted as toastmaster at the banquet. The local unit of Eagles, which now has a membership of 241, is setting out an intensive campaign this fall with the 400 membership mark as its goal.

The local unit of Eagles, which now has a membership of 241, is setting out an intensive campaign this fall with the 400 membership mark as its goal.

OFFICERS WATCH PACHAUG TO STOP ILLEGAL FISHING

John Bodde of Attleboro, Mass., was arrested last Thursday evening while fishing in Pachaug pond by State Deputy Game Warden William R. Palmer of Groveland. He was presented before the Groveland town court on two counts, one for fishing without a license and fishing with net lines. Judge Robinson fined him $25.00.

Last Sunday Deputy Game Warden Palmer and Officer John Dolan and two other deputies were called to Pachaug pond to enforce the net demand and set lines and seines has been going on there it is said. The pond is being patrolled daily, a determined effort being made to put a stop to all illegal fishing.

BETWEEN-SEASON HATS SHOWN IN GREAT VARIETY

For the between-season, many shoppers Saturday chose from the great variety of embroidered velvet sport hats. Pett hats and handsome shawls in hat colors in great variety were also shown.

Jaunty models in divinity, panne and Lyons velvet, smartly trimmed with metallic effects or feathers, are provided for dressy and immediate wear.

The women who like a draped veil will find some beautiful ones in stock this season. Prices are reasonable considering the quality.

Helpful hints for shoppers are given by The Bulletin's advertisers today.

SEEMED TO INQUEST AT STAFFORD SPRINGS

J. Edward Orcutt of No. 12 Nelson place, this city, who found the body of a woman in the pond at Stafford Springs, Mass., on Monday, was notified Sunday night at the office of Dr. G. P. Bard, medical examiner at Stafford Springs today (Monday). The purpose of the notification is a coroner's inquest which is to be held at 2:30.

Hearings Before Common Council

Four hearings are scheduled to come up before the special meeting of the court of common council in the council chamber, this (Monday) evening. The hearings are on several resolutions as follows:

Lafayette road Fowler avenue as a public highway, establishing the grade for the sidewalk on the easterly side of Lafayette street, ordering property holders on Sachem street to Williams street to lay new sidewalks before November 1st, and establishing grade for the walks on both sides of Prospect street from Central avenue to Hickory street.

For Admission to Brown

Frederick H. Toblen of Norwich has applied for admission to Brown University this fall.

Thirty-two Connecticut boys have signified their intention of joining the largest Freshman class which Brown has ever enrolled.

121 Freshmen at Connecticut College

The senior class at Connecticut college, which opened last week, has forty members, the junior class 91 members, the sophomore class 119 and the freshman class 121 members.

There are nineteen states represented, including Florida, Nebraska and Maine.

Saw Eastern States Exposition

Charles H. Harris the Salem inventor and blacksmith, has just returned from Springfield where he visited the Eastern States exposition, but was not an exhibitor.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Norwich, Monday, Sept. 26, 1921

Light vehicle lamps at 8:11 o'clock this evening.

White Cross Council, K. of C., is planning to commemorate Columbus day by a harvest festival.

The girls from old Mystic who camp at Lantern Hill have remained there until this season.

In spite of summer heat Saturday business was good, merchants finding fall trade very satisfactory.

The Purchasing Agents' Association of Connecticut will hold its September meeting in New Haven Tuesday evening.

Carl D. Gallup has moved his mill from Ekone near Norwich and will begin sawing for the Ingalls Lumber company.

During the period of trolley transfer on the West Side, Conductor George J. Raymond supervises the "safety first" precautions.

The Rockville Chamber of Commerce is to co-operate with the Rockville Fair Association this season to make the fair a success.

New London grammar schools are so crowded that upper and lower halls are utilized. In the fifth ward, the Hartford school has over 800 pupils.

Connecticut milk producers are being invited to attend the national dairy show which is to be held at the Minnesota fair grounds at St. Paul, Oct. 8 to 15.

News has been received that U. S. S. General Capt. Fred Schubert, which was at the submarine base until last in June, has left Panama, her destination San Diego, California.

The Lawton Mills at Plainfield has opened a dental clinic at the Lawton Inn annex. Dr. F. D. Browning of Jewett City is in charge, assisted by Dr. W. A. Mills of Norwich.

Plans for the establishment of a state college to be located in Hartford were discussed Saturday night at a joint meeting of the Modern Woodmen and the Royal Neighbors of America.

In the United Congregational church, Mrs. Arthur L. Poole's Sunday school class is taking charge of arranging and distributing the flowers used in church each Sunday from now until November first.

Thursday, Sept. 29, Yale University will formally open for its 221st year with a convocation at the Chapel, beginning at 10 o'clock. President last year, Dr. Arthur T. Hadley, president since 1899.

The school for the Connecticut League of Women Voters will hold classes next week at the New Haven Y. M. C. A. buildings and the lecturers will be professors at the university. The purpose is to teach women politics.

In the New London city court Saturday morning Judge R. Victor Prince imposed a fine of $200 each on two men convicted of the sale of liquor, and $100 in the case of one person, and the forfeiting of bonds of a thirteen.

Of interest to Norwich friends in the society world from the Connecticut list, Mrs. William B. Osmond Field, Mrs. Webb, Mr. Drayton and Bishop Thomas Frederic Davies played a foursome on the Stockbridge golf course Friday.

See H. B. Goodrich of the United Congregational church, and Rev. Henry W. Hulbert, of Groton, were among passengers expressing views in a Hartford Sunday paper concerning the perplexing problems and needs of the rural church.

The new train schedules on the New Haven railroad at Rockville went into effect Sunday morning with a reduction in service on the New Haven line and the curtailment of the steam service. There are two trains where there are no connections.

To Attend G. A. R. Encampment

Commodore Orrin M. Price of Sagadahoc post, No. 1, G. A. R., John Service and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Whitman left here Saturday afternoon for the national encampment of the G. A. R. at Indianapolis. They were to join the Connecticut party at New Haven, leaving there at noon Sunday. They expect to be home again next Saturday.

Violence at Central Baptist Service

A feature of the Sunday evening service at the Central Baptist church was the rendering of Wladyslaw's Legend, by Prof. P. C. Christopher, violinist, of this city. This was Prof. Christopher's first public appearance in Norwich. He showed rare talent and remarkable quality of tone in his solo and was complimented by Rev. David A. Pitt, pastor of the church. The violinist was accompanied by Andrew Peddie, formerly of New York. Mr. Peddie is now a resident of Norwich.

Prof. Christopher was born in this city and received his schooling here. He then went to Italy and for six years studied at Verdi's Conservatory.

Nanticoke Quarries Organization

The following certificate of organization was filed with the secretary of state: The Connecticut Quarries, Inc., Nanticoke; shares subscribed for $1,000,000 on which no cash and $9,000 in property have been paid. President O. W. Salm, 14 shares; vice president, Kalle Kivioja, 14 shares; secretary, U. W. Kivioja, 14 shares; treasurer, J. W. Kivioja, 14 shares; all of East Lyme; J. A. Pakkari, Chester, Mass., 14 shares; Konstantin Tikkanen, Quincy, Mass., 14 shares; Nell MacDonald, Quincy, Mass., 14 shares.

Holy Name Society Meets

The quarterly meeting of the Holy Name Society was held in the basement chapel of St. Patrick's church Sunday afternoon. The president, James J. Finnegan presiding. A brief address was made by Rev. Miles P. Galvin.

Sunday morning about 150 members of the society received holy communion in a body at the 7:30 mass from Rev. M. H. May and his assistant priest, Rev. Philip J. Mooney.

At Consecration Service

Miss Charlotte M. Holloway, state investigator for the labor commission, Miss James M. Kelly and Miss Carroll, of New London, motored to Norwich Sunday and attended the consecration anniversary services at St. Patrick's church. Mrs. Kelly is candidate for a place on the New London schoolboard at today's election.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

Mrs. Adam Reid, of Los Angeles is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lewis, of Washington place.

Noah Lucas, of New Britain spent the week-end with his wife and little daughter, who are visiting Mrs. Lucas' mother, Mrs. Joseph C. Worth at her cottage at Nantuxton Park.

Capt. Franklin T. Lord left by motor Saturday, accompanied by son Robert Preston for his new post, Camp Meade, Md. Mrs. Lord and daughter are remaining for a time with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Preston, at their summer cottage.

Saybrook Point—Principal H. Arnold Bennett has a paper in circulation asking for subscriptions for the school playground.

Copyright 1921 The Picture Advertiser, Box 17
Orange City, Oregon

The Picture Tells The Story

Dave Ready Mixed Paint, Varnishes, Oils and Brushes and Metals

BILLARDS AND POCKET DOOLEY & SIMPSON Basement Thayer Building

Need a Plumber? Tel. 887 J. R. BARSTOW & CO. 23 Water Street

GLASS - PUTTY - PAINT Hardware - Tools - Cutlery Examine our line of Aluminum Ware

THE HOUSEHOLD Bulletin Building, 74 Franklin Street

Local Wholesale Market

Prescribed by the Marketing Bureau of the State Board of Agriculture to the Norwich Bulletin.

Active Demand: Apples, lima beans, cabbage, potatoes, prime beef, Malted Demand: Oranges, carrots, beets, onions.

Four Demand: Watermelons, squash, lettuce, tomatoes, sweet corn.

Market Conditions. Apples were scarce but the demand was strong. McIntosh were selling for $1.25 to $1.50 per bushel. Red Delicious, $1.25 to $1.50. Tomatoes, beets and carrots continue to come into the market in small amounts. Potatoes are selling readily here in the city for $1.25 to $1.50 per bushel. The supply on hand is quite satisfactory.

Fruits. Apples (14 ct) $1.00 $1.25 Apples, McIntosh (14 ct) $1.25 $1.50 Apples, Red (14 ct) $1.25 $1.50 Apples, Waltham (14 ct) $1.25 $1.50 Apples, No. 1 (14 ct) $1.25 $1.50 Apples, No. 2 (14 ct) $1.25 $1.50 Apples, No. 3 (14 ct) $1.25 $1.50 Apples, No. 4 (14 ct) $1.25 $1.50 Apples, No. 5 (14 ct) $1.25 $1.50 Apples, No. 6 (14 ct) $1.25